

1. Al - le - lu - ial Je - sus saves us, we are one in
 2. So that we may preach the Gos - pel to a world in
 3. Oh, Lord Je - sus, you have giv - en all you are that
 4. There we see your bod - y bro - ken by your e - ne
 5. Praise to God for our sal - va - tion Christ has come - ne
 6. Now be - fore us gleams the pro - mise of a cit - y

Christ our Lord, for by grace we have sal - va - tion, bit - ter need, we free have each been giv - en tal - ents, we may live There ly in your grace and mer - cy mies and friends. There all hu - man pow - ers van - ish, us with life, life where we take from his com - mu - nion filled with grace, where the light is al - ways shin - ing

Christ re - deems us by his Word! By his grace we to serve Christ in word and deed. Some are pro - phets, we would all your gifts re - ceive. Give us cour - age, old de - lu - sions meet their end. God has tri - umphed us in the midst of pain and strife. Je - sus, feed us from the glo - ry of God's face. Let us has - ten are one bod - y, by his grace we are made one, some a - pos - tles some can teach while o - thers preach,

 strength and wis - dom, as we la - bor to be true,
 o - ver e - vil in the vic - ry of the cross,
 for the jour - ney through the de - serts of our day, Je - sus' com - ing by the preach - ing of the Word

1 one in Spir - it, one in pur - pose, as we make the Gos - ple known.
 2 some can go forth with good ti - dings far as earth's round cor - ners reach.
 3 each us how to love each oth - er with your Cal - va - ry in view.
 4 there we find un - bro - ken mer - cy, love that did not count the cost.
 5 come re - fresh us with your gos - pel as we toil a - long the way.
 6. so all na - tions bow be - fore him and pro - claim him, God and Lord!
