With Vibrant Life We Rise Again

1 With vi - brant life we rise a - gain To greet You, God, in
 2 From lone - li - ness of sleep - less night, From harm and dan - ger,
 3 That You would keep us, too, to - day, From sin and e - vil, thank - ful hymn; This morn - ing we have waked a - fresh,

 death - ly fright, You've sent, O Lord, Your an - gel blest, now we pray. Our deed and life, to give You joy,

Washed clean in Your re - new - ing grace.
 Our sen - tin - el of peace and rest.
 The wick - ed Foe You must de - coy. A - men.

4 Into Your hands we do commend
 Our bodies, souls, for You to tend.
 Ourselves and all things are for You
 Doxologies that are Your due.

5 Praise God, who gives the earth its goods.
 Praise Him, you people, creatures, woods.
 Praise Him, you martyrs, saints, and throng.
 Praise Father, Son, and Spirit strong.
