peace came to earth

peace came at last that chosen night when angels cloved the sky with song and light and God embodied love and sheathed His might; who could but gasp: Immanuel! who could but sing: Immanuel!
peace came to earth

1. Peace came to earth at last that chosen night
   When angels

2. And who could be the same for having held
   The infant

3. You show the Father none has ever seen,
   The flesh and

4. How else could I have known you, O my God!
   How else could

      clove the sky with song and light
      And God embodied

      in their arms, and later felt
      The wounded head and blood You bore our griefs and pain;

      In bread and wine You

      I have loved you, O my God!
      How else could I esteem love and sheathed His might Who could but gasp: Immanuel.

      side, all doubts dispelled
      Who would but sigh: Immanuel.

      visit us again
      Who could but see: Immanuel.

      brace you, O my God!
      Who could but pray: Immanuel.

      Who could but sing: Immanuel.
      Who could but shout: Immanuel.
      Who could but thrill: Immanuel.
      Who could but praise: Immanuel.
