INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Regents
Concordia University Chicago
River Forest, Illinois

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Concordia University Chicago (the University), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of June 30, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Concordia University Chicago as of June 30, 2023 and 2022, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the University and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the University's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but it is not absolute assurance and, therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on consolidated the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the University's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2023 and 2022

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

Concordia University, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation located in River Forest, Illinois doing business as Concordia University Chicago, is a comprehensive private university accredited by the Higher Learning Commission whose mission is based on liberal arts education centered in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It offers various bachelor's degrees, master's degrees, doctoral degrees, and various certificate and licensure programs, and provides education to young children through its early childhood program.

Concordia University is operated under the auspices of The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod (the Synod), a Missouri not-for-profit corporation. Concordia University Chicago's Board of Regents, responsible for the management of Concordia University Chicago, consists of up to 18 members (including eight elected by its Board of Regents and four elected by the Synod).

Six not-for-profit corporate and trust entities operate as corporate-wide entities directly under the auspices of the Synod:

- Lutheran Church Extension Fund (LCEF)
- Concordia Publishing House (CPH)
- The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod Foundation (LCMS Foundation)
- Concordia Plan Services (CPS)
- Concordia Historical Institute
- Concordia University System (CUS)

CUS, a not-for-profit corporate entity, broadly oversees the activities of eight colleges and universities and seminaries, including Concordia University Chicago, carrying out the activities and policies of the Synod as it applies to the Synod higher education institutions.

Thirty-five Synodical districts, all separate entities operating under the auspices of the Synod, represent the Synod to the various Synod congregations across the country and around the world. The district in which Concordia University Chicago is located, the Northern Illinois District (NID), elects five members of Concordia University Chicago's Board of Regents (including the NID president who serves ex officio as a voting member).

The majority of students enrolled at Concordia University Chicago receive funds through federal financial aid and loan programs under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, to pay for a substantial portion of their tuition. Concordia University Chicago and its programs are subject to approval, licensure, and/or regulatory requirements of various accrediting authorities, state authorities, the United States Department of Education, and other federal agencies.

Concordia University Foundation, Inc. (the Foundation) is a separate Illinois not-for-profit corporation formed to promote Concordia University Chicago through solicitation of funds to encourage various activities of Concordia University Chicago, to administer the endowment assets of Concordia University Chicago, and to administer gifts and bequests given to it by donors for purposes of supporting the educational and religious objectives of Concordia University Chicago. Net assets of the Foundation which are not restricted by donors are considered payable to Concordia University Chicago, and are therefore, considered to be net assets with donor restrictions restricted by purpose or time by the Foundation, although such net assets are considered net assets without donor restrictions in the consolidated financial statements.

The Foundation is administered by a Board of Directors elected by its corporate member, Concordia University Chicago.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Concordia University Chicago and the Foundation (collectively, the University). These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (USGAAP). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared to focus on the University as a whole and to present balances and transactions according to the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. This has been accomplished by classification of net assets and transactions into two classes as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions - include net assets available for use in general operations and are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions. The University's Board of Regents has designated from net assets without donor restrictions net assets for board-designated endowment.

Net assets with donor restrictions - include net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met either by actions of the University or the passage of time. They may also be subject to donor-imposed restrictions that the contribution be maintained in perpetuity and neither expire with the passage of time nor can be removed by satisfying a specific purpose. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the University to use all or part of the income earned on these assets for general or specific purposes. Such assets include primarily the University's permanent endowment.

Revenues are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions unless use of the revenue is restricted by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in net assets without donor restrictions.

To help ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the University, management maintains the accounts of the University in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, funds that have similar characteristics are combined and presented by net asset class.

Net assets are further segregated by management into the following subclasses:

Operating Funds - All net assets without donor restrictions and net assets restricted by purpose or time are classified as operating net assets except as designated below.

Endowment and Similar Funds - Certain board-designated (designated by the Concordia University Chicago's Board of Regents) net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions restricted by purpose or time have been pooled with net assets with donor restrictions to be held in perpetuity for the purpose of investing the total of such assets as a single endowment fund. By policy adopted by the Board of Regents, the first $250,000 of unrestricted bequests are to be classified as undesignated, with the balance being board-designated for endowment and added to the endowment investment funds.

Net Investment in Plant - Net assets without donor restrictions that have been utilized for the investment in land, buildings, and equipment, net of accumulated depreciation and capital debt.

Funds Held in Trust - Certain net assets are held by a third party trustee and are not in the control of the University.

Charitable Remainder and Lead Trusts - Certain net assets are held by a third party trustee as gift annuities and/or straight unitrusts.

All revenues and expenses are considered operating revenues and expenses, with the exception of the following:

- Contributions with donor-imposed restrictions that are required to be held in perpetuity.
- All return on endowment investments in excess of (less than) the endowment payout used to support operations.
- Changes to amounts of funds held in trust.
- Unrealized gain or loss on the fair value of the interest rate swap agreement.
- Endowment and similar funds' net assets meeting the requirements for the release of net assets that are retained as endowment funds.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include currency, demand deposits, and liquid investments with a maturity, at time of purchase, of three months or less. Cash held by the University for long-term purposes is included in investments. At June 30, 2023 and 2022, the University's cash balances exceeded federally insured limits by $1,375,812 and $131,399, respectively. The University does not believe these funds to be at substantial risk of loss due to the lack of federal insurance coverage.

Accounts Receivable and Related Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Accounts receivable primarily include amounts due to the University for tuition and fees. The University grants credit to students and generally does not require collateral or other security in extending credit to students. Balances are stated net of an allowance for doubtful accounts.

The allowance estimates are based on past collection experience, an aging analysis of outstanding balances and expected payment information obtained from third party collection agencies. The University writes off accounts receivable that have become uncollectible. Payments subsequently received on such receivables are credited to the allowance for doubtful accounts. Concentration risk with respect to accounts receivable is typically limited due to the large number of accounts and low average balance.

Loans Receivable

Loans receivable primarily consist of funds advanced to students under the Federal Perkins Loan Program. Under the terms of the program, these loans are subject to forgiveness or assignment back to the federal government under certain circumstances. Balances are stated net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. Concentration risk with respect to loans receivable is limited due to the large number of accounts and low average balance.

Prepaid Expenses and Other Assets

Accounts included in prepaid expenses and other assets include the following:

Marketing Fees Deposit - The University paid a deposit related to marketing services being performed on behalf of the University. This amount is owned by the University until certain time and performance objectives are met.

Prepaid Admissions Marketing Costs and Expense - The University incurred certain marketing fees and expenses directly attributable to the receipt of future tuition revenues.

Inventories - Inventories include office supply inventories, housekeeping supply inventories, and fuel inventories, and are stated at cost (first-in, first-out method).

Cash Surrender Value of Life Insurance - The University is designated as the owner and beneficiary of flexible premium adjustable life insurance policies. Contributions of life insurance policies are recorded at the cash surrender value at the date of the gift, which is assumed to approximate fair value. Premium payments are required to be made by the donor to continue coverage to the maturity dates.

Unamortized Website Development Costs - The University incurred certain costs and expenses in the development of its website. These costs are amortized over a five-year period.

Unamortized Library Books Costs - Library books and hymnals for and maintained in either the University's library or the University's chapel, are capitalized and amortized over a period of ten years.

Unamortized Course Development Costs and Expenses - The University incurred certain costs and expenses in the development of online courses. These costs are amortized over a five-year period.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Investments and Investment Return

Investments are carried at fair value, with all returns on investments reflected in the consolidated statements of activities. Endowment assets are managed by the University and pooled to the extent allowable for investment purposes.

Funds held in trust that consist of irrevocable trusts from which the University is to receive the income in perpetuity are recorded as investments. The principal is held in trust by LCMS Foundation and is not available to be used by the University. Given the nature of the promises, the University records the contributed principal as net assets with donor restrictions to be held in perpetuity. Income received is recorded as either without or with donor restrictions based on the presence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Investment return whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are treated as income without donor restrictions. Increases or decreases in the fair value of the trust assets are recorded on the consolidated statements of activities as changes in net assets to be held in perpetuity.

Investment return is reported net in the consolidated statements of activities and consists of dividends, interest, and other investment income, less external and direct internal investment expense; and realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments carried at fair value.

Investments subject the University to credit risk. The University's investment policy stipulates diversification of investments.

Land, Buildings, and Equipment

Land, buildings, improvements, and equipment are recorded at cost, except for property received by gift, which is recorded at fair value on the date of receipt. Improvements and equipment are capitalized when their purchase price is greater than $5,000. Title to land and buildings is in the name of the University, with reversionary clauses to the Synod. These reversionary clauses are subordinate to the collateralization interests associated with loans and bonds payable described in Note 10.

Buildings, improvements, and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Buildings
Parking garage and athletic facilities	60 years
Other buildings	39-50 years
Athletic field	25 years
Building and other improvements	10-50 years
Equipment	5-30 years

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Art Objects

The University has a collection of art objects, most of which were contributed to the University. Donations and acquisitions of collections are not required to be recognized since they are added to collections that are held for public exhibition and education in furtherance of public service rather than financial gain; are protected, kept encumbered, cared for and preserved; and are subject to a policy that requires the proceeds from sales of collection items to be used to acquire other items for collections. Therefore, the value of these objects is not recorded in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position.

Leases

The University leases various pieces of equipment under finance leases. The University determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Finance lease right of use assets are included in land, buildings, and equipment on the consolidated statements of financial position. Finance lease liabilities are included in obligations under finance lease on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Finance lease right-of-use assets represent the University's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and finance lease liabilities represent the University's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. The finance lease right-of-use assets are amortized from the commencement date of the lease agreement to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term using the straight-line method. However, if the lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset or an existing purchase option is reasonably certain to be exercised, the right-of-use asset is amortized to the end of the useful life of the underlying asset. Finance lease liabilities are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term.

For any leases that do not provide the lessor's implicit rate, the University uses its incremental borrowing rate at the commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments, which is based on an estimated secured rate comprised of a risk-free rate plus a credit spread as secured by the leased assets. Determining a credit spread as secured by the leased assets may require significant judgment.

Leases with an initial term of 12 months or less are not recorded on the consolidated statements of financial position, and lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The University's lease agreements do not contain any material residual value guarantees or material restrictive covenants.

The University has lease agreements with lease and non-lease components, which are accounted for as a single lease component for all asset classes.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue primarily consists of collected, but not earned, college and Early Childhood Center (ECC) tuition for the summer (post June 30) and future semesters. Accordingly, this deferred revenue will be recognized as tuition and fee revenue in the subsequent fiscal year when the performance obligation is met.

Interest Rate Swap Derivative

The University records its interest rate swap agreements at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses being recorded in the consolidated statements of activities.

Unamortized Debt Issuance Costs and Expenses

Credit costs associated with the loans described in Note 10 are paid in advance and amortized according to the period covered. Costs associated with the issuance of bonds described in Note 10 are amortized over the weighted-average life of the bonds, which approximates the effective interest method.

Tuition and Fees

Revenues from tuition and fees are derived from education services provided to students. Generally, tuition and other fees are reported in the fiscal year in which educational programs are conducted, which is the period in which the performance obligations were completed, and revenue was earned. Tuition and fees received in the current fiscal year for the future years' programs are reported as deferred revenue in the consolidated statements of financial position.

The nature of tuition and fees give rise to variable consideration in the form of the institutional scholarships awarded to students to defray the costs of the academic programs, which reduce the transaction price (tuition and fees). Scholarships awarded to the students were $19,294,852 and $20,482,579 at June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Payments for tuition are due prior to the start of the academic term, whether campus or online session. Tuition and fees are recognized ratably over the academic terms. The University generally uses the time elapsed method, an output measure, as it best depicts the simultaneous consumption and delivery of services.

The University's refund policy permits students who officially withdraw by the appropriate date as published to be eligible for a refund. Refunds generally result in a reduction of deferred revenue during the period that the student drops or withdraws from a class.

Auxiliary Enterprises

The University's auxiliary enterprises exist primarily to furnish goods and services to students, faculty, and staff. Managed as essentially self-supporting activities, the auxiliary enterprises consist primarily of residence halls and dining facilities. Payments for housing and dining services are due prior to the start of the academic term. Performance obligations are delivered over the academic terms; consequently, associated revenues are earned and are recognized over the course of each term as services are delivered. Services performed under these contracts are considered a single performance obligation; as such, services are regarded as a bundled series of distinct goods and services with the same timing and pattern of transfer to the resident. Revenue is recognized for these contracts over time as the performance obligation is satisfied by transferring control of the goods and services to the resident.

Significant Judgments

There are no significant judgments involved in the recognition of revenue due to the passage of time.

Contract Balances

The timing of revenue recognition, billings and cash collections results in billed accounts receivable and unearned revenue (contract liabilities) on the consolidated statements of financial position. Contract liabilities are reflected as deferred revenue in the consolidated statements of financial position and released as the performance obligations are met.

The opening balances for contract assets (accounts receivable) from contracts with customers at the beginning of the year were $7,878,886 and $8,889,760 at July 1, 2022 and July 1, 2021, respectively.

The opening balances for contract liabilities (deferred revenue) from contracts with customers at the beginning of the year were $5,591,250 and $8,314,768 at July 1, 2022 and July 1, 2021, respectively.

Various economic factors could affect the recognition of revenues and cash flows, including the demand for services, ability to provide services, availability of labor, and prompt payment.

All tuition and fees and auxiliary enterprises are recognized over time.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Gifts, Grants, and Contracts Revenue

Gifts, grants, and contracts are recorded as revenue when received or when an unconditional promise to give is made. Irrevocable split-interest agreements, including charitable remainder trusts, charitable lead trusts and perpetual trusts, are recorded as revenue when the trust agreements are executed. Revenue from the split-interest agreements is recorded as contribution revenue based on the present value of the expected cash flows to be received by the University.

All contributions are considered to be available for the University's unrestricted use, unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes or by law are reported as support with donor restrictions that increases those net asset classes; however, donor-restricted contributions with restrictions that are met in the same reporting period are reported as support without donor restrictions. Promises to give due in future periods, including amounts expected to be received from split-interest agreements, imply a time restriction and are stated net of estimated uncollectible amounts. Accordingly, unconditional promises to give are accounted for as net assets with donor restrictions until both the implied time restriction is met and the purpose restriction, if any, has been fulfilled. Conditional promises to give are not included as support until the conditions are substantially met.

A portion of the University's revenue is derived from grants which are conditional upon the incurrence of allowable qualifying expenses. Amounts received are recognized as revenue when the University has incurred expenditures in compliance with specific grant provisions. Amounts received prior to incurring qualifying expenditures are reported as a refundable grant advance in the consolidated statements of financial position. There were no amounts received in advance from cost-reimbursement grants for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022. The University had grants of approximately $0 that have not been recognized as of June 30, 2023 and 2022, because qualifying expenditures have not yet been incurred.

Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected within one year are recognized as support and recorded as a receivable at net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give not expected to be collected within one year are recorded at the present value of their estimated future cash flows and are discounted at an appropriate risk-adjusted interest rate.

Gifts and grants, including unconditional promises to give, that are restricted for buildings and equipment are recognized as donor restricted until the related asset is placed in service, at which time they are released from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions.

Contributed services are reported in the consolidated financial statements at fair value for voluntary donations of services when those services (1) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (2) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. No amounts have been recorded in the consolidated financial statements, as they do not meet the criteria for recognition.

Government grants and contract income employee retention tax credits (ERC). ERC are considered conditional contributions and are recognized at the end of each quarter in which the University experiences the qualifying decreases in gross receipts. During the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, the University recognized approximately $10,300,000 and $0, respectively, of income related to the ERC. The IRS has extended the statute of limitations to five years with respect to ERC claims. Should the IRS subsequently audit ERC amounts and determine the University did not meet the eligibility requirements, a legal liability for repayment of previously recognized ERC amounts could be incurred.

Fair Value Measurements

USGAAP establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework uses a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. USGAAP requires the organization to maximize the use of observable inputs when measuring fair value. The hierarchy describes three levels of inputs, which are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in inactive markets; or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3: Significant unobservable inputs.

In many cases, a valuation technique used to measure fair value includes inputs from more than one level of the fair value hierarchy. The lowest level of significant input determines the placement of the entire fair value measurement in the hierarchy. The categorization of an investment within the hierarchy reflects the relative ability to observe the fair value measure and does not necessarily correspond to the perceived risk of that investment.

If an investment that is measured using net asset value (NAV) has a readily determinable fair value (that is, it can be traded at the measurement date at its published NAV), it is included in Level 1 of the hierarchy. Otherwise, investments measured using NAVs are not included in Level 1, 2, or 3, but are separately reported.

Valuation Techniques

Following is a description of the valuation techniques used for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. There have been no changes to the techniques used during the years ended June 30, 2023 or 2022:

- Mutual funds: Valued at the NAV of shares on the last trading day of the fiscal year.
- Equity securities: Valued at the closing quoted price in an active market.
- Notes, bonds, and debt securities: The notes, bonds, and debt securities held by the University generally do not trade in active markets on the measurement date. Therefore, these investments are valued using inputs including yields currently available on comparable securities of issuers with similar credit ratings, recent market price quotations (where observable), bond spreads, and fundamental data relating to the issuer.
- Charitable remainder and lead trusts: Valued using the fair value of the assets held in the trust reported by the trustee as of the last day of the fiscal year. The trust valuations are based on assumptions about the present value of distributions to be received from the trusts.
- Funds held in trust: Valued using the fair value of the assets held in the trust reported by the trustee as of the last day of the fiscal year. The University considers the measurement of its beneficial interest in the perpetual charitable trust to be a Level 3 measurement within the hierarchy because even though that measurement is based on the unadjusted fair value of trust assets reported by the trustee, the University will never receive those assets or have the ability to direct the trustee to redeem them.
- Interest rate swap agreement: The fair value is estimated using forward-looking interest rate curves and discounted cash flows that are observable or that can be corroborated by observable market data.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with USGAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of supporting various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the consolidated statements of activities. The consolidated financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributed to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited. Certain expenses are allocated among the academic programs, academic support, student services, auxiliary enterprises, management and general, and fundraising categories based on the square footage of the space utilized by the different University departments. These expenses include depreciation, interest, and utility expenses. Other expenses are allocated according to these same categories based on service requests. These expenses include information technology support services, and operations and maintenance services. Certain employee benefit expenses have been allocated among the same categories based on the number of benefits-eligible employees in the different University departments.

New Accounting Standards

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), as amended by ASU No. 2020-05, to increase the transparency and comparability about leases among entities. The new guidance requires lessees to recognize a lease liability and a corresponding lease asset for virtually all lease contracts. It also requires additional disclosures about leasing arrangements. The University adopted this standard effective July 1, 2022 with no material impact to the consolidated financial statements. Lease disclosures for the year ended June 30, 2022 are made under prior lease guidance in FASB ASC 840. The accounting for finance leases remained substantially unchanged.

In June 2016, FASB issued ASU 2016-13 Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments (ASC 326). This standard replaces the incurred loss methodology with an expected loss methodology that is referred to as the current expected credit loss (“CECL”) methodology. CECL requires an estimate of credit losses for the remaining estimated life of the financial asset using historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts and generally applies to financial assets measured at amortized cost, including accounts and loan receivables, and some off-balance sheet credit exposures such as financial guarantees and loan commitments. It also applies to net investments in leases recognized by a lessor under Topic 842. Financial assets measured at amortized cost will be presented at the net amount expected to be collected by using an allowance for credit losses. ASU 2016-13, as amended by ASU No. 2019-10, is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods within those fiscal years. The University is currently assessing the impact of this new standard.

The University participates in the Perkins federal revolving loan program. The availability of funds for loans under the program is dependent on reimbursements to the pool from repayments on outstanding loans. Funds advanced by the federal government of $649,701 at June 30, 2023 and 2022, are ultimately refundable to the government and are classified as liabilities in the consolidated statements of financial position. Outstanding loans cancelled under the program result in a reduction of the funds available for loan and a decrease in the liability to the government.

The authority to make new Perkins loans ended September 30, 2017, with disbursements permitted through June 30, 2018, for students with existing Perkins loans. The University will be required to return the federal contribution and may continue servicing their Perkins loans or assign the Perkins loans to the Department of Education. Beginning with the year ended June 30, 2022, all Perkins loans in default more than two years are required to be assigned to the Department of Education.

At June 30, 2023, the following amounts were past due under student loan programs:

Allowances for doubtful accounts are established based on prior collection experience and current economic factors which, in management's judgment, could influence the ability of loan recipients to repay the amounts per the loan terms. Institutional loan balances are written off only when they are deemed to be permanently uncollectible. Amounts due under the Perkins loan program are guaranteed by the government and, therefore, no reserves are placed on any past due balances under the program.

7. CHARITABLE REMAINDER AND LEAD TRUSTS

The charitable remainder and lead trust agreements of which the University is the beneficiary are administered by the LCMS Foundation as trustee or fiscal agent. Distributions are to be made to the University (lead trusts) or to the donor's designee (remainder trusts) during the terms of the agreements, which vary in maturity through the year 2051 as of June 30, 2023. At the end of the terms, a portion of the remaining trust assets, as defined in the trust agreements, is to be distributed to the University. As of June 30, 2023 and 2022, the present value was estimated using an annualized growth rate of 5.40% and 5.50%, respectively, and a discount rate of 2.75% and 3.50%, respectively. The change in value of these split-interest agreements for the year ended June 30, 2023 and 2022 resulted gains of $47,395 and losses of $138,320, respectively.

8. LAND, BUILDINGS, AND EQUIPMENT (Continued)

Purchases of land, buildings, and equipment for the year ended June 30 are funded as follows:

	2023	2022
Net assets with donor restrictions subject to purpose or time	$ 1,986,918	$ 135,126

TOTAL	$ 3,797,043	$ 1,515,486

On March 30, 2022, the University sold two residential properties (7221-27 Thomas Street and 1131-33 Bonnie Brae in River Forest) adjacent to the campus. The land and buildings had a combined book value of $1,353,700 and were sold for $1,657,538. The proceeds were used to pay off the 2018 LCEF Loan $1.5 Million loan as described in Note 10, which had financed the original purchase.

In March 2022, the University began demolition of Gross Hall, a dormitory. Demolition was completed in August 2022. For the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, the University incurred costs of $321,797 and $794,032, respectively.

In March 2022, the University also began significant repairs to two sections of utility tunnels, which were completed in September 2022 with a total cost of $406,502.

To fund both the demolition and the tunnel repairs, the Board of Regents authorized a special endowment payout of up to $1,800,000. This resulted in a special payouts of $631,841 and $1,067,827 during the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

9. ACCOUNTING FOR CONDITIONAL ASSET RETIREMENT OBLIGATIONS

Professional accounting standards require that an entity recognize the fair value of a liability for a conditional asset retirement obligation in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of fair value can be made. An asset retirement obligation would be reasonably estimable if: (a) it is evident that the fair value of the obligation is embodied in the acquisition price of the asset, (b) an active market exists for the transfer of the obligation, or (c) sufficient information exists to apply to an expected present value technique. In applying this professional guidance to the University, it was necessary to determine if the University will undertake any major renovation, sell, dispose, or abandon any related assets; what liability would be associated with such action; and the date such action would be taken.

The University’s conditional asset retirement obligations primarily relate to the remediation of asbestos contained in buildings that the University owns. Environmental regulations exist that require the University to handle and dispose of asbestos in a special manner if a building undergoes major renovations or is demolished. Determination of the recorded liability is based on a number of estimates and assumptions including discount rate, abatement cost estimates, and estimates of dates of abatement. The University estimated its liability at June 30, 2023 and 2022 to be $526,513 and $150,879, respectively, which is included in the accounts payable and other liabilities line in the consolidated statements of financial position.

LCEF Loan $12.5 Million

On July 1, 2013, the University obtained a loan from LCEF in the amount of $12,500,000. The loan matures on July 1, 2033. The loan carries a variable interest rate, to be adjusted on July 1, 2018, and every five years thereafter (Interest Reset Date). Required monthly payments of principal and interest, combined, are also to be adjusted on the Interest Reset Date. A balloon payment of all remaining amounts is due on the maturity date. Effective July 1, 2018, the interest rate was adjusted to 3.50%, and the monthly payments were adjusted to $62,999. The next Interest Reset Date is July 1, 2023. This loan requires a security interest in the investments held by the University, and a security interest both in the campus property and one residential property owned by the University. Interest expense on this loan reported in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022 was $316,807 and $331,891, respectively.

On November 1, 2022, the LCEF Loan $12.5 Million, LCEF Loan 6.75 Million, and the Available line of credit – LCEF (LCEF Loans) agreements were consolidated and restated to reflect changes to the variable interest rate determination on the LCEF Interest Reset Date, debt service coverage ratio, and certain other covenants. The consolidated loan agreement also provides for cross-default under any of the LCEF Loans. In addition, the LCEF Loan $12.5 Million continues to be subject to various covenants as well as a security agreement covering both the LCEF Loan $12.5 Million and the 2013 IFA Bonds (the Security Agreement). As of June 30, 2023, management is not aware of any violation of the covenants, with the exception of furnishing LCEF with audited financial statements and a compliance certificate stating that the University is in compliance with covenants within 150 days after the end of the fiscal year. As further discussed in Note 22, subsequent to year end, LCEF has issued a waiver of default with respect to both covenant violations.

The campus property, as well as one residential property owned by the University, is considered collateral under the Security Agreement. The Security Agreement requires the University to meet all obligations associated with the underlying agreements for LCEF Loan $12.5 Million and the 2013 IFA Bonds. LCEF and the 2013 IFA Bonds purchaser share this collateral under an intercreditor agreement.

LCEF Loan $6.75 Million

On August 18, 2016, the University obtained a loan from LCEF in the amount of $6,750,000, which was amended and restated as of August 16, 2017, and on November 1, 2022. The loan matures on July 2, 2038. The loan carries a variable interest rate, to be adjusted every five years (Interest Reset Date). Monthly payments of $38,715 (principal and interest, combined), to be adjusted on the Interest Reset Date, are required to be made, with a balloon payment of all remaining amounts due on the maturity date. This loan requires a security interest in the investments held by the University, and a security interest both in the campus property and in one residential property owned by the University. Interest expense on this loan reported in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, was $189,411 and $198,531, respectively.

Available Line of Credit - LCEF

Effective November 13, 2020, the LCEF extended a $9,000,000 line of credit to the University, which was in effect during the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022. Monthly payments of accrued interest are required. The available line of credit had an original maturity date of November 13, 2023. Subsequent to year end, the line of credit maturity date was extended until February 13, 2027. The line of credit requires a rest period at a zero balance for 30 consecutive days, semi-annually (July-December and January-June) during each fiscal year.

The floating interest rate paid on funds advanced to the University was 4.375% and 3.625% on June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Interest expense on the line of credit reported in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022 was $146,227 and $36,922, respectively.

2018 LCEF Loan $1.5 Million

On July 2, 2018, the University obtained a loan from LCEF in the amount of $1,500,000, scheduled to mature on July 2, 2038. The loan carried an initial interest rate of 3.750% to be adjusted on July 2, 2023, and every five years thereafter (2018 LCEF Interest Reset Dates). Monthly payments of $8,893 (principal and interest, combined), to be adjusted on the 2018 LCEF Interest Reset Dates, were required to be made, with a balloon payment of all remaining amounts due on the maturity date. This loan required a security interest in two residential properties at 7221-27 Thomas Street and 1131-33 Bonnie Brae in River Forest and was subject to an intercreditor agreement with Busey Bank. Interest expense on this loan reported in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022 was $0 and $36,985, respectively.

On March 30, 2022, the properties at 7221-27 Thomas Street and 1131-33 Bonnie Brae in River Forest were sold, and the remaining principal on this loan was paid off using the proceeds from the sale. There was zero balance on the loan at June 30, 2023 or 2022.

Busey Bank Loan

On June 29, 2018, the University obtained a bank loan from Busey Bank in the amount of $12,800,000, maturing on June 29, 2030. The loan carries an interest rate based on 1-Month Term SOFR plus 135 basis points, which was 4.939% and 2.469% at June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Monthly payments of accrued interest began on August 1, 2018, with additional monthly principal payments of $53,333 schedule to begin August 1, 2020, amortized on a 20-year basis, and a balloon payment of all remaining amounts due on the maturity date. This loan requires a security interest in the investments held by the University. Interest expense on this loan reported in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022 was $639,729 and $208,541, respectively.

On September 2, 2020, the 2018 Busey Bank Loan was amended. The amended terms moved the maturity date from June 29, 2025 to June 29, 2030 and deferred the initial monthly principal payment to September 1, 2021. The monthly payments shall continue to be amortized on a 20-year basis, and a balloon payment of all remaining amounts is due on the amended maturity date. Further, on September 1, 2020, the parties entered into an interest rate swap agreement to manage the impact of future interest rate changes on the underlying floating interest rate on the 2018 Busey Bank Loan. The interest rate swap agreement provides for a floating rate equal to the interest being paid on the Busey Bank Loan and requires a security interest in the investments held by the University throughout the amended term of the Busey Bank Loan.

The Busey Bank Loan is subject to various covenants as well as the Security Agreement. Among such covenants, the University is required to maintain a minimum amount of unrestricted funds and funds subject to donor restrictions that are temporary in nature in its endowment investment account. Such funds must be equal to the greater of $15,733,334 or 133.34% of the principal amount outstanding on the Busey Bank Loan. The University is also required to submit audited financial statements to Busey Bank within 150 days of the end of the fiscal year. The University was not in compliance with these two covenants at June 30, 2023. As further described in Note 22, subsequent to year end, Busey Bank has issued a waiver of default with respect to both covenant violations.

Sodexo Cafeteria Loan

On October 1, 2020, Sodexo America, LLC (the University's food service provider) provided two advances totaling $2,595,000 to the University for the purpose of renovating the Dining Hall. The first advance, in the amount of $126,000, required an initial repayment of $100,000 which was made on February 26, 2021. The remaining $26,000 will be repaid using a straight-line amortization schedule over 14 years, commencing November 1, 2020 and ending on June 1, 2034, with monthly payments of $160. The second advance, in the amount of $2,469,000, will be repaid using a straight-line amortization schedule of 14 years, commencing on October 1, 2020 and ending on June 1, 2034, with monthly payments of $14,964. No interest expense accrues on these advances, and the amount of imputed interest is immaterial.

Illinois Finance Authority Bonds

On July 1, 2013, the University issued $17,000,000 in variable rate tax-exempt revenue bonds through the Illinois Finance Authority (IFA).

The bonds, which mature on July 1, 2033, are revenue refunding tax-exempt bonds issued through the IFA. Effective October 1, 2013, quarterly principal payments of $170,000 are required to be made with a balloon payment of all remaining amounts due on the maturity date. The interest rate during the initial interest period (ending June 30, 2018) equals 72% of the sum of the applicable margin plus the one-month LIBOR. The applicable margin, initially set at 300 basis points and adjustable semiannually, ranges from 250 basis points to 325 points, depending upon certain financial ratios maintained by the University. The interest rate must be renegotiated upon termination of the initial interest period. Upon the end of the initial interest period, the bonds are subject to mandatory tender for purchase, at which time the bond may be retained by the initial purchaser, remarketed to a new purchaser, or purchased by the University. The next purchase date on which the bonds are subject to mandatory tender for purchase is July 3, 2023. The interest rate on the bonds will be adjusted at that time.

On July 2, 2018, the bonds were remarketed to Busey Bank as the new purchaser. The bond held by the initial purchaser was cancelled and a new bond was executed and delivered to Busey Bank. The interest rate equals 70.5% of the sum of the applicable margin plus the one-month LIBOR, or an alternative index rate designated by Busey Bank. The applicable margin is set at 175 basis points.

The interest rates paid on the bonds ranged from 2.0487% to 4.939% during the year ended June 30, 2023 and ranged from 1.290 to 2.487% during the year ended June 30, 2022. Interest expense on the bonds reported in the consolidated statements of activities for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022 was $427,759 and $163,702, respectively.

The bonds, held by a single purchaser, are subject to various covenants as well as the Security Agreement. As of June 30, 2023, the University was in violation of the requirement to deliver audited financial statements to Busey within 150 days of the end of the fiscal year and the requirement to purchase the existing bond in full on July 3, 2023.

As further described in Note 22, the University received a waiver for failure to meet the covenants at June 30, 2023. The next purchase date is January 3, 2028.

The campus property, as well as one residential property owned by the University, is considered collateral under the Security Agreement. The Security Agreement requires the University to meet all obligations associated with the underlying agreements for the LCEF loans and the IFA Bonds. LCEF and the IFA Bonds purchaser share this collateral under an intercreditor agreement.

Obligations Under Finance Lease

The University is leasing various equipment under finance leases expiring through November, 2027. Finance lease right-of-use assets with a balance of $208,828 are included in land, buildings and equipment on the consolidated statements of financial position. The weighted average remaining finance lease term in years is 4.2 and the weighted average discount rate is 3.21% at June 30, 2023.

The following summarizes the components of lease cost at June 30, 2023:

Amortization of right-of-use assets	$ 40,900

11. INTEREST RATE SWAP DERIVATIVE

The University entered into a $12,800,000 interest rate swap agreement effective September 8, 2020, to manage the impact of future interest rate changes on underlying floating rate debt. The agreement, with a termination date of June 29, 2030, requires the University to pay a monthly fixed rate (2.240% annual interest rate) to the counterparty in exchange for variable rate payments from the counterparty based on a percentage of one-month LIBOR. Interest expense on the swap agreement was ($364,095) and $78,548 for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

The University modified the $12,800,000 interest rate swap agreement effective June 2, 2023, with a beginning notional amount of $11,895,854. The termination date of June 29, 2030 was unchanged. The agreement requires the University to pay a monthly fixed rate (2.240% annual interest rate) to the counterparty in exchange for variable rate payments from the counterparty based on a percentage of one-month USD-SOFR CME Term, commencing July 3, 2023.

14. ENDOWMENT

The University accounts for endowment net assets by preserving the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment fund absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result, the University classifies as net assets with donor restrictions to be held in perpetuity: (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund, if any. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in net assets with donor restrictions to be held in perpetuity is classified as net assets with donor restrictions for purpose or time, according to donor stipulations, until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the University for the donor-stipulated purpose.

The University considers the following factors in making a determination either to appropriate or to accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund.
2. The purposes of the University and the donor-restricted endowment fund.
3. General economic conditions.
4. The possible effects of inflation and deflation.
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments.
6. Other resources of the University.
7. The investment policies of the University.

14. ENDOWMENT (Continued)

From time-to-time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or state law requires the University to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. Deficiencies of this nature exist in donor restricted endowment funds, which together have an original gift value of $664,371, a current fair value of $635,857, and a deficiency of $28,514 as of June 30, 2023; and an original gift value of $1,749,412, a current fair value of $1,664,718 and a deficiency of $84,694 as of June 30, 2022. These deficiencies resulted from unfavorable investment market fluctuations, as well as continued appropriation of endowment assets for expenditures for certain programs that were deemed prudent by the Board of Regents.

The University has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Under these policies, as approved by the Board of Regents, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results over the long-term that exceed its endowment payout plus inflation as measured by the Consumer Price Index, while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this objective.

The University has a policy of appropriating for distribution, including those endowments deemed to be under water, each year a percentage of the endowment fund net assets' average fair value over the prior 12 quarters through the end of the calendar year prior to the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. The current nominal spending rate approved by the Board is 4.0%. As described in Note 8, during the years ended June 30, 2022 and 2023, an additional special endowment payout was authorized and is included within operating activities in the consolidated statements of activities.

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objective, the University relies on a total return strategy in which the investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The University targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints. The endowment assets are managed by the Foundation through an investment committee consisting of members of the Foundation's Board of Directors that meets periodically to ensure the objectives of the investment policy are being met and that the strategies used to meet the objectives are in accordance with the approved investment policy.

17. INCOME TAXES

Concordia University Chicago and the Foundation are organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) of 1986, as amended and, as such, are exempt from federal income tax on income earned related to exempt activities under IRC Section 501(a). In addition, the Internal Revenue Service has determined that Concordia University Chicago and the Foundation are not private foundations.

The University evaluates their uncertain tax positions on an annual basis, and there have been no recorded uncertain tax position recorded in 2023, 2022, and 2021. Therefore, no provision or liability for income taxes has been included in the consolidated financial statements. The University files various federal and state non-profit tax returns. The University is no longer subject to U.S. Federal or state examinations by tax authorities prior to 2020.

18. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS AND DEFINED BENEFIT PLANS

The University participates in the retirement and disability/survivor benefit programs provided by Concordia Plan Services (CPS) through the Concordia Retirement Plan (Traditional and Account Options), the Concordia Retirement Savings Plan, and the Concordia Disability and Survivor Plan. Substantially all full-time employees are covered by these retirement and survivor programs. Full-time staff hired prior to July 1, 2020, and full-time faculty hired prior to July 1, 2021, are enrolled in the Traditional Retirement Plan for which the University contributed 8.50% and 8.20% of the salaries of covered employees during the year ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Full-time employees hired after these dates are enrolled in the Account Option, for which the University contributes either 0%, 3%, or 6% of salaries of covered employees depending on seniority. The University contributes a range from 1.35% to 1.45% of covered employees' salaries for disability and survivor programs. Retirement and survivor program expenses for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022 totaled $1,638,713 and $1,787,286, respectively.

19. STUDENT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

The University participates in various student financial aid programs. These programs are subject to periodic review by the United States Department of Education (USDOE). Disbursements under each program are subject to disallowance and repayment by the University.

20. INTEREST

The University made cash payments for interest totaling $1,337,537 and $1,053,323 for the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. A reconciliation of the University's total interest paid to interest expense included in the consolidated statements of activities is as follows:

	2023	2022
Total interest expense	$ 1,362,923	$ 1,048,118
Interest expense capitalized	3,695	7,001

TOTAL INTEREST PAID	$ 1,337,537	$ 1,053,323

21. RELATED PARTIES

During the years ended June 30, 2023 and 2022, the University received contributions of $312,652 and $327,132, respectively, from members of Concordia University Chicago's Board of Regents and $27,954 and $37,001, respectively, from members of the Foundation's Board of Directors.

21. RELATED PARTIES (Continued)

During the year ended June 30, 2022, the University paid CAIS/CUS $141,404 for certain computer and software services provided to the University, allocated among the various functions of the University in the consolidated statements of activities. CAIS officially ended operations on November 30, 2020, after which point CUS managed existing software contracts through the end of their terms and invoiced member schools for their share of these contracts as well as a share of CAIS closure expenses, with the final such invoice issued on March 14, 2022.

22. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after year end but before financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. These events and transactions either provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the consolidated statement of financial position, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the consolidated financial statements (that is, recognized subsequent events), or provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the consolidated statement of financial position but arose after that date (that is, non-recognized subsequent events).

On March 21, 2024, the University obtained a loan from LCEF in the amount of $2,000,000, scheduled to mature on September 21, 2038 (the LCEF Loan $2M). The loan is payable in 53 consecutive payments of interest only, beginning on April 21, 2024, and continuing monthly thereafter. An aggregate principal payment of $100,000 is due on or before June 30, 2024, and annual principal payments in the aggregate amount of $200,000 are required, beginning on or before June 30, 2025, and continuing annually thereafter. The note contains a provision that 50% of unrestricted bequests received by the University will be applied toward the required principal payments, with a maximum principal applied per year of $500,000. The unpaid principal balance is due upon maturity. The initial variable interest rate is 5.375% and may change on March 21, 2025, and annually thereafter.

On March 28, 2024, the 2013 IFA Bonds were amended and restated. Busey Bank will continue to retain the existing bond for a new interest period that extends to, but not including, January 3, 2028. The amended bond is executed and delivered as a single fully registered bond in the denomination of $7,860,000, which is the outstanding principal amount of the existing bond as of March 28, 2024, after giving effect to the prepayment made through the acquisition of the LCEF Loan $2M. Beginning April 1, 2024, quarterly principal payments of $170,000 are required, with a final principal payment at maturity on July 1, 2033. The bond is subject to mandatory sinking fund redemption. Interest is payable monthly. The interest rate equals 83% of the sum of the applicable margin plus the term SOFR, or an alternative index rate designated by Busey Bank. The applicable margin is set at 250 basis points. The bonds are subject to mandatory tender for purchase on each purchase date, as defined in the amended and restated bond and loan agreement, at which time the bond may be retained by the initial purchaser, remarketed to a new purchaser, or purchased by the University.

The next purchase date on which the bonds are subject to mandatory tender for purchase is January 3, 2028. The interest rate on the bonds will be adjusted at that time. The amended and restated bond and loan agreement contains a waiver of the events of default as a result of the University's failure to timely deliver audited consolidated financial statements and to purchase the existing bond in full on July 3, 2023.

On March 28, 2024, the Busey Bank Loan was amended and restated. The amended terms require the University to maintain a minimum amount of unrestricted funds and funds subject to donor restrictions that are temporary in nature in its endowment investment account. From December 31, 2023 through and including June 30, 2024, such funds must be equal to 115% of the outstanding principal amount outstanding on the Busey Bank Loan. The percentage increases to 120% of the outstanding principal amount from December 31, 2024 through and including June 30, 2025, to 125% of the outstanding principal amount from December 31, 2025 through and including June 30, 2026, and 133% of the outstanding principal amount from December 31, 2026 and thereafter. The amended and restated Busey Bank Loan contains a waiver of the events of default as a result of the University's failure to maintain sufficient unrestricted funds and funds subject to donor restrictions that are temporary in nature in its endowment investment account at June 30, 2023, to timely deliver audited consolidated financial statements, and to purchase the existing 2013 IFA Bond in full on July 3, 2023. The amended terms also waive any interest that has accrued on the loan at the default rate. The maturity date, payment terms and interest rate provisions were unchanged.

The University has evaluated subsequent events through March 28, 2024, which is the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued and noted no additional items requiring disclosure.
