

1. A palm pa -rade is of com - ing down the street; No beat of drum lends
 2. In - to the - lives of all - whom God the has made Je - sus ri - ding
 3. With wav - ng palms we fol - low where Christ leads; From him we learn to 4. Je - ru - sa - lem is where ho - san - nas die. "Who needs a cross?!" the
 5. Through o - pen tomb moves on the palm pa - rade. To re - sur - rec - tion wings to march - ing feet; No bu - gles blare, no ban - ners soar on high. With wav - ing in the palm pa - rade. To us he calls with low - ly dig - ni - ty. Do more than reach out with love's deeds. But, oh! the cross is now our des - ti - ny! The way of fick - le faith - ful cry. "Will you go, too?" Mes - si - ah wants to know. Oh, no! of life we are con - veyed. At God's re - view - ing stand ap - plause we hear: "Well done! Well palms the and crowds "Ho - san - na!" cry. As Je - sus, God's a - noin - ted one, goes stand the and cheer; come, fol - low me. Oh, come, and to self - walk the way in life with life and leads up; to whom then shall we go? With you dear, So dear. To life e - ter - nal now is - Christ! To whom are my child so dear, So dear. To life e - ter - nal now cross - be - done! You are my child so dear, So dear. To life e - ter - nal now draw by me."

 try.
 low.
 near."

A PALM PARADE

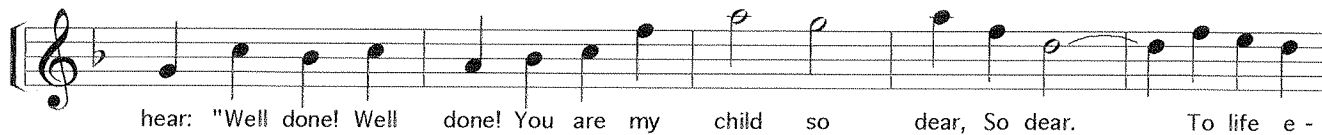

Descant

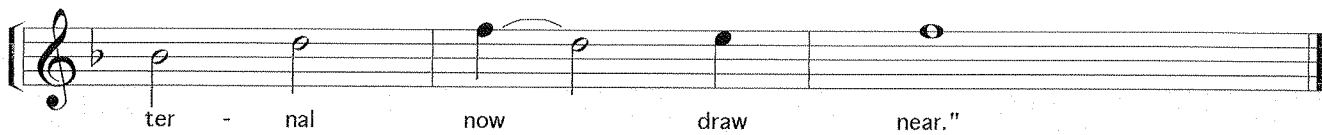

5. Through o - pen tomb moves — on the palm pa - rade: To re - sur - rec - tion life we are con veyed. At God's re - view - - ing stand ap - plause we hear: "Well done! Well done! You are my child so dear, So dear. To life e - ter - nal now draw near."

Text: © John H. Tietjen

Peeters

Tune: © Paul Manz

Paul Manz