

ONE WORLD, O GOD

Text: Norbert Hattendorf

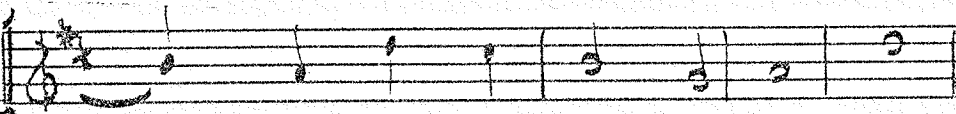

Tune: Paul Manz

1. One world, O God, You made a - lone One man, one maid, one
 2. The two are one, no long-er two. A vi - sion of Your
 3. One peo - ple claimed and cho-sen free! "One God! No oth - ers
 4. One God and Fa - ther a - bove all. One re - bel pride. One
 5. One faith. One wa - ter blend-ed word. One cup. One bread. One
 6. Re - store Your peo - ple. Let them be Re - flec - tion of Your
 7. One God. One world. One gen - e - sis To loose the hu - man flesh one bone. One glo - ry in cre - a - tion shown. "Fa - church and You. Your pri - mal bless - ing now re - new. "Fa - be - sides Me!" "O Is - rael, hear, one Lord is He!" "Fa - sin. One fall. One Son. One Spir - it to re - call. "Fa - Gos - pel heard To rouse one trust. One vi - sion stirred. "Fa - u - ni - ty. One re - a - wak - ened ju - bi - lee! "Fa - tongue to bless The Fa - ther, Ho - ly Spir - it, Son! "Fa - ther, that they may be one!"

 ther, that they may be one!"
 ther, that they may be one!"
 ther, that they may be one!"
 ther, that they may be one!"
 ther, that they may be one!"
 ther, that they may be one!"

UNITY, 1981

NOTES: Written for Tri-Lutheran Convention, Estes Park, Colorado, May 13-16, 1981. The refrain to each verse is from our Lord's "High Priestly" prayer, John 17:21. The reference in verse two is to St. Paul's view of marriage as a symbol of the church, Ephesians 5:31-32. Verse three recalls the First Commandment, Exodus 20:3, and the Great "Shema," the creed of Israel, Deuteronomy 6:4. Verses four and five reflect Ephesians 4:5-6.